Introduction

Since 1992 Malaysia open his door for foreign workers to work in Malaysia, more than 1.3 million foreign workers have been imported from various countries such as Indonesia, Myanmar, Nepal, Vietnam, India, Thailand, Bangladesh, Philippine, Sri Lanka, Pakistan etc.

Due to the complex processing of the application, different languages and cultures between employers and foreign workers, unprofessional services and high service charges by illegal private recruitment agencies, most of Malaysia employers refuse to recruit foreign workers. Most of the foreign workers are coming from poor family and they need to spent more than USD 1,500.00 for them entitle to work in Malaysia.

To address these problems, Pantawan has come out the solutions and design and participate in all the related programs to recover all the problems faced by Malaysia employers and also foreign workers who intend to work in Malaysia.
